
"Newspaper of the North", February 8, 1994

Altink affair will be followed for court

Holthe For art dealer Cor van [REDACTED] from Holthe (Beilen municipality), who was accused in 1990 of the placing on the market of counterfeit paintings of the Groningen Ploeg painter Altink, the affair is not over yet. Gallery Holding Mrs. R. Smithuis from Heiloo, who at the forgery case brought to light, there is not satisfied that waiver of prosecution against him. She has the Groninger gallerist C. Hofsteenge the Amsterdam Court requested reopening of the case. The two find that there is at that time insufficient research has been done on the authenticity of the cloths.

The art dealer should appear as a result of their request on February 16 before the court. Justice decided last year to dismiss the case against Van L [REDACTED]